Labrina Village Residential Care

If you want to keep living the life you love, Southern Cross Care is here to help you get the most out of every day. Our range of services is designed to support you in maintaining a healthy and active lifestyle.

With high-quality facilities and an engaging environment, Labrina Village Residential Care is a place you can call home. It's a gardener's delight, with outdoor areas and an atrium garden offering comfortable spaces to relax and socialise with family and friends.

Each of the 40 individual rooms offers spacious ensuites, kitchenettes and the latest nurse-call technology, providing you with the security and support you need. We provide chef-cooked meals prepared on-site, and we cater to a variety of dietary requirements.

Southern Cross Care's whole-person approach means we also cater to your spiritual needs. Our chapel welcomes all faiths and denominations, and pastoral care staff are available to provide social and emotional support.
